the full day or
for individual sessions

Seminar – 15 October

Session 1 - Immigration (9am -10.30am)

In this session, Troy will cover the fundamentals of immigration as they affect employers. Specifically, he will deal with:

1. Immigration basics including what is a visa, what is a work permit and what is the DIBP?
2. VEVO;
3. The usual suspects – subclasses 457 and 186;
4. Employer compliance – the need to stay vigilant about visa and sponsorship conditions!

Session 2 - FBT (10.45am -12.15pm)

FBT remains a challenge for all organisations. In this session Paul Mather will focus on technical and compliance issues, relating to:

1. Cars
2. Logbook method
3. Claiming exemption for utility vehicles
4. Car Parking
5. Relocations
6. Claiming the minor benefits exemption

Paul will also discuss the findings from our recent FBT Return survey.

Session 3 – Entertainment (1.15pm – 2.45pm)

In this session Paul Mather will unravel the complex rules and provide a framework for managing the FBT liability on your entertainment expenses.

Included with this will be a focus on meals whilst travelling and claiming the exemptions for minor benefits and on premises consumption.

Session 4 – Salary Packaging (3pm – 4.30pm)

FBT Solutions recently surveyed over 4,000 organisations to understand better their current Salary Packaging arrangements, expectations and future needs. The response was overwhelming and salary packaging is alive and well.

In this session Paul will discuss the key benefits to package, the current trends and how to make sure your salary packaging arrangements are compliant.
